Testimonials

Testimonials

Christine Chua – Stream Peak International:

“Due to the poor account management from our previous SEM service provider, our Google Ads account was a mess! After attending the SEM course, I’ve managed to clean up and organize our Google Ads account, which has since allowed us to receive quality leads! Dylan has also been very helpful with providing me with suggestions to manage our account after the course. I would highly recommend taking up the SEM course at Equinet Academy!”

Sharon Toh:

“A very helpful course to start running Ads campaign on your own as the fundamentals and practical aspects of Ads are covered. Very straightforward!”

Derrick Tay – Public Speaking Academy:

“The teachings are systematic, substantial enough to be prep-ed for the exam (but more importantly to be well aware of the fundamentals) yet succinct enough to complete in two days. Learnt a lot and appreciate the generous sharing.”

Gaynor Lim – HDB Upgrading Strategist:

“I love the hands-on approach setting up the Ad Campaigns step-by-step. One of the important highlights of the course was on how to analyse the competitive metrics and potential profitability of the keywords. This was extremely useful for me because it prevented me from wasting unnecessary budget on keywords that were not likely to convert, and instead focus on keywords that were more likely to convert. Highly recommend this course.”

Instructor

Lin Xuan Bin

Specialising in Paid Search and Online Lead Generation, Xuanbin's digital marketing career has spanned MNCs, private companies and government agencies across Recruitment, IT, Media, and International Trade industries.

During his stints in award-winning global media agencies, Xuanbin planned and strategised digital marketing campaigns over the Asia Pacific region for some of the world's largest companies. Some of which included Hotels.com, SAP, MINI, Laneige and SPRING Singapore.

An ROI driven marketer, Xuanbin ran a cost-efficient and profit-driven programmatic remarketing programme across 6 markets in Asia. Using a mix of Programmatic Display, Paid Social and Telemarketing / Electronic Direct Mailers, he helped build sales pipelines across various business units within SAP in the APJ region.

The revamped International Enterprise (IE) Singapore corporate website, which Xuanbin was the co-project lead, saw online engagements increase significantly over the same time period from the previous year — an increase of 30.8% in visits and 59.7% increase in pageviews. The website was awarded Best Customer / User Experience Site Award at the 2013 Sitecore Site of the Year Awards for Asia, and Best in Class (B2B) in the 2014 Interactive Media Awards.

Having been on both brand and agency sides, Xuanbin strongly believes in empowering brand marketers with a deeper understanding of the digital marketing landscape to achieve better alignment with their agencies; therein maximising the potential of their partnership and digital marketing performance.

Xuanbin is a certified individual in Google AdWords and Google Analytics. In his day job, he is a fully committed data ninja, manipulating and analysing large datasets to uncover the real business impact of the digital campaigns he runs.
